

Chartered
Institute of Housing

David Lingeman director of property services, A2Dominion

David brings over 20 years of property knowledge to A2Dominion, and is responsible for strategic asset management and delivering an effective and efficient repairs and maintenance service for our diverse range of residents. He was Dominion Housing Group's director of property services for several years prior to the merger with A2, having previously worked for Notting Hill Housing in a variety of roles.

